Occasional Care Providers

Which local childcare centres will be offering occasional care?

There are five childcare centres in Mosman that will offer occasional care. They are listed on the right.

When will these centres start providing occasional care?

SDN Mosman and Mosman ELC are already offering occasional care. OAC Mosman will be available from 1 November, Shadforth Cottage from 19 December, and Jack & Jill from 6 January 2020.

How do I organise occasional care at one of these centres?

All requests for care should be organised directly with each centre, using the contact details on this page.

Do I need to use other types of care at these centres to be eligible for occasional care?

No, you only need to register as an occasional care user if that is all you need. You may however find that the centres provide other care and programs that you can also use. Check with each centre for more details about their programs.

What occasional care is each centre offering?

A summary of the care being offered is set out below. Please contact each centre for more detailed information.
